CONTRADICTS HINES

DENIES THAT HE WAS RE-CEIVER OF LORIMER FUND.

Bays He Never Received Contributions From Any Person or Cornoration to Be Used in Lorimer's Behalf His Company, He Sald, Never Contributed.

WASHINGTON, June 28.-Edward Tilden, president of the National Packing Company of Chicago, denied to-day before the Senate committee investigating the election of William Lorimer that he was the receiver or custodian of contributions to the so-called Lorimer corruption fund. Mr. Tilden was mentioned in the testimony of Clarence S. Funk, general manager of the International Harvesting Company, as the person to whom Edward Hines of the Edward Hines Lumber Company asked Mr. Funk to send a $10,000 contribution. Mr. Tilden denied any knowledge of corruption in Senator Lorimer's election. He said that his company had not contributed any money, nor had he ever received contributions from any person or corporation to be used in Senator Lorimer's behalf.

Mr. Tilden said he was interested as a depositor and stockholder in two or three hundred banks in this country and in Great Britain. He added that he was treasurer of about thirty corporations. He maintained five personal bank accounts in Chicago and New York.

How many corporations are you president of?" inquired Senator Kenyon

"I don't know," replied Mr. Tilden. "Do you know anything about the allegations of corruption at Springfield when a United States Senator was elected in 1909?" he was asked.

"Nothing except what I read in the newspapers." Mr. Tilden replied. Mr. Tilden said he refused to obey the order of the Helm Committee of the Illinois Legislature to produce his personal books and records because he regarded them as his provate property and also because he assured the members of the committee that they contained nothing bearing in any way on the Lori-

"I know," replied Mr. Tilden, "that there was nothing in my books bearing upon the election of Senator Lorimer. made this statement under oath and did not regard it as fair for the committee to go through my books. I told the committee, however, that I would allow any member to investigate the books and records."

any member to investigate the books and records."

In reply to a question by counsel for the committee Mr. Tilden admitted that his books were kept in such a way that he did not think a member of the committee could have obtained much information from them.

"How long do you keep your cancelled checks?" he was asked.

"I have no set rule," replied Mr. Tilden. Mr. Tilden said that in keeping his personal records he did not follow any particular system.

"On one sheet," Mr. Tilden explained, would be the receipts and on another were expenses. Later they would be bundled up and laid away. I do not know whether they are kept or not."

"Have you your books for the year 1909?" Mr. Tilden was asked.

"I do not know," replied Mr. Tilden. "I have never investigated to find out."

"Could you tell from your books the loans and investments of 1909?" Mr. Tilden was asked.

"I am not sure about that," replied the witness. "Maybe I opuid and maybe could not."

Senator Kern wanted to know if the

could not."
Senator Kern wanted to know if the interests comprising the National Packing Company had not appealed to PostmasterGeneral Hitchcock for protection against Federal prosecution on the ground that it had furnished liberal campaign contributions.

Mr. Tilden said he knew nothing of campaign contributions by his company or the packing interests composing it.

Rush Culver, former Mavor of Marquette, Mich.; John McLeod of Buffalo, Hugh McLean of North Tonawanda, N. Y. and William F. McKnight, an attorney of Grand Rapids and former Democratic mational committeeman, tostifed before national committeeman, testified before Mr. Tilden was called. They all denied knowledge of alleged corruption in Senator Lorimer's election and said that they had never heard Mr. Hines say that money had been used in Mr. Lorimer's election.

ACTION IN DAY PORTRAIT CASE.

House Sub-Committee Recommends Dismissal of Col. Michael and Morrison.

WASHINGTON, June 28 As a result of the investigation of the Day portrait mystery, which has just been concluded. the sub-committee of the House Committee on Expenditures in the State Department, which conducted the inquiry, has recommended that Col. William H. Michael, former chief clerk of the State Department and now United States Consul-General at Calcutta, and Thomas H. Morrison, disbursing clerk of the Department, be dismissed "for the good

The sub-committee agreed on this recommendation at its metting this afternoon and the full committee is expected follow suit to-morrow. The report holds that on the evidence gathered by the committee there was a misappropriation of the $1,600 representing the ifference between the $850 paid to the artist who painted the Day portrait and the $2,450 drawn on the voucher which the artist signed in blank. Mr. Michael and Mr. Morrison, the sub-committee holds, were guilty either of "gross incompetence or connivance."

The sub-committee was unanimous in recommending the dismissal of Michael and Morrison and the full committee is expected to concur. No resolution on the subject will be introduced in the House for a while, as Chairman Hamlin and his colleagues want to put it up first to Secretary Knox.
